SPRING 2009 NEWSLETTER

Warramate is a family owned winery established in 1970 by the Church family. Planted on the northern slopes of the Warramate Ranges overlooking the magnificent Yarra Valley, Warramate produces small quantities of handcrafted Riesling, Cabernets, Pinot Noir and Shiraz wines from vines that are dry grown and hand pruned and harvested.

WARRAMATE RECEIVES

RATING IN JAMES HALLIDAY'S AUSTRALIAN WINE COMPANION 2010

"A long-established and perfectly situated winery is reaping the full benefits of its 39-year-old vines; recent plantings will increase production.

All the wines are well made, the Shiraz providing further proof (if such be needed) of the suitability of the variety to the region." Has moved to another level since son David Church took the full mantle of winemaker.

WARRAMATE WINES

The success of "Warramate" continues:

"Warramate produces some of the finest cabernet-based reds in Australia"
